ABOUT THE PROGRAM

For decades, the Annual Drunk Driving Defense Seminar has been regarded as the one and only seminar Wisconsin drunk driving defense attorneys must attend. Structured to provide all of the annual CLE credits that a practitioner needs, this seminar is not just the best drunk driving defense seminar Wisconsin offers, but one of the best annual seminars – period. Ask anyone who has attended. Presentations are designed to meet the needs of defense practitioners at every level – from those who have completed 100 jury trials to those tackling their first OWI case. Attendees are provided not only the how to, but valuable tips on how to be the best you can be. Presenters are selected from among the best and most respected OWI defense practitioners, to provide cutting edge ideas and methods to improve every attorney’s practice. Only defense attorneys are permitted to attend, assuring the greatest opportunity for open exchange of ideas and practices throughout the event.

We commence with a Welcome Reception at The Osthoff Resort on Sunday evening November 12th, sponsored by our great partners Smart Start Wisconsin and The Manor. Attendees are highly encouraged to arrive Sunday evening, relax and gather around the fireplace in the Elk Lounge and enjoy the food and beverages provided.

As is our tradition, at the close of Day One, attendees are invited to the always popular evening social event at the Paddock Club in downtown Elkhart Lake. Don’t make dinner plans as the food provided is always excellent! For those night owls looking for more, there’s the Baer Bar Crawl sponsored by Above The Bar Marketing and Birdsall Obeare & Associates, LLC following the Paddock Club dinner. Shuttle service will be provided. Plan to enjoy the evening social events and spend the night at The Osthoff Resort.

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Daniel Billington II is an Accredited Collision Reconstructionist and Human Factors Expert specializing in Forensic Visibility Analysis. He is a former Deputy Sheriff from Waukesha County, WI with 18 years in law enforcement. He began his career in the private sector On January 16, 2009 and today operates a private consulting practice which provides expert support for legal and insurance professionals.

With his thousands of training hours and extensive experience in the field of collision reconstruction, Mr. Billington has been called upon to provide expert support and testimony throughout the United States and abroad. The truth is Daniel's focus and his integrity is unimpeached. He is a tenacious expert having helped to win cases on both sides of criminal and civil matters. As an experienced lecturer, Mr. Billington has spoken for the National College of DUI defense at the Harvard School of Law, national conferences, and many state organizations throughout North America.

Mr. Billington is accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Traffic Accident Reconstruction, having previously served as the chairman of the Theory Test Development Committee whose purpose was producing testing questions and criteria for candidates who have applied for accreditation testing. He is also a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers, and the Illuminating Engineering Society. Mr. Billington has earned a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice, and a master's degree in Organizational Management.

David Bolles is a litigator with experience handling civil and criminal matters throughout Wisconsin. His current practice focuses almost exclusively on criminal defense.

David has a broad range of courtroom experience, having successfully represented clients before circuit courts throughout the state, the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, as well as numerous administrative agencies. He has handled a variety of matters including complex civil litigation, contract and property disputes, personal injury, insurance defense, and criminal prosecutions ranging from disorderly conduct to homicide.

Bill Ginsberg (Mandell & Ginsberg Law Office) is a solo practitioner who has handled nothing but criminal and traffic cases (hundreds of OWI cases) in State and Federal Courts for 40 years. Something like 98 jury trials with 43 not guilty outcomes (including directed verdicts, hung juries, or reversals on appeal). Four cases in the Wisconsin Supreme Court (1 win; 2 losses; 1 tie).

As of writing this short bio, I have been sober for 27 years, nor have I placed any bets on anything in that time. Hopefully, I can still say the same by the time I arrive for the OWI seminar in November.

Anthony J. Jurek is a partner at Stroud, Willink & Howard, focusing on criminal defense at trial and on appeal. He has argued to the Wisconsin Supreme Court, where he succeeded in getting Wisconsin's unconscious blood draw statute declared unconstitutional. Anthony is a board member of the Wisconsin Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, and in that context often speaks to the Wisconsin Legislature and Wisconsin Supreme Court regarding proposed bills or rules that affect rights of the accused or the practice of law. He often appears as a guest commentator and legal analyst on both local and national television broadcasts. Please contact him at: Stroud, Willink & Howard, 608.661.1025, ajurek@stroudlaw.com www.stroudlaw.com

Dennis M. Melowski is the senior partner of Melowski & Singh, LLC in Sheboygan. His practice is exclusively limited to the defense of drunk driving charges.

Karleigh Miller of Cohen Law Offices, LLC., focuses her practice almost exclusively on OWI Defense. She works diligently to ensure each client receives a zealous and thorough defense. She graduated from Central College and then attended Creighton University where she earned a J.D. and a Masters in Negotiation and Conflict Resolution. She serves on the Board for WACDL. She is also a member of the National College of Drunk Driving Defense (NCDD) and serves on the NCDD Committee for Alcohol and Drug Testing Devices. She's certified in NHTSA Field Sobriety Testing. She competed in Mock Trial as an undergraduate at Central College, winning All Region Attorney her Junior year. She has coached Mock Trial at the collegiate level since 2013. Since 2018, Attorney Miller has volunteered as a coach of the UWEC Mock Trial team. Since 2021, she has also worked as an Adjunct Professor at University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire co-teaching a course on Mock Trial. Outside of work, she enjoys spending time with family, friends, and her two cats.

Chris Mutschler has chaired or lectured at more than three dozen seminars in and outside of Wisconsin and has authored articles appearing in publications such as The DWI Law & Science Journal, The Drinking/Driving Law Letter, Wisconsin Defender, and the Wisconsin Lawyer, among others, on more than a dozen occasions. He also co-authored the Second Edition of Traffic Law & Practice in Wisconsin, and co-authored A Wisconsin Prosecutor's Manual for OWI Cases, and was Editor-in-Chief of the Marquette Law Review. In a published decision, the Wisconsin Supreme Court referred to his written arguments as "artistic," although to be completely fair, the full quote was "artistic, but unreasonable." (He tends to overlook that last part.)

Adam Nero practices OWI defense in Wisconsin trial courts. Based out of Hudson, Wisconsin, he joined Nelson Defense Group when it opened in 2017 and has been named to the Super Lawyers Rising Stars list each year since 2018. He serves on the faculty of the National College for DUI Defense (NCDD) and the Wisconsin State Public Defender Trial Skills Academy. He has also presented on OWI litigation at seminars of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (NACDL). His hobbies include re-watching Star Wars, playing and collecting very old lap steel guitars, and bragging about his 1-year-old son Enzo to anyone who'll listen.
